

PUBLIC NOTICE

The California Department of Water Resources announces their intent to prepare an Environmental Impact Report (EIR) to evaluate the environmental effects of implementing alternative restoration plans for 1,166 acres of wetlands as part of the Dutch Slough Wetland Restoration Project in the western Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta in the City of Oakley. The EIR also will assess the potential environmental impacts of the proposed 55-acre City of Oakley community park, a public access plan for the wetlands, and possible restoration of an adjacent 100-acre Ironhouse Sanitary District property.

A PUBLIC SCOPING HEARING TO SOLICIT PUBLIC INPUT ON THE SCOPE OF THE EIR
